

Course Overview

This course is designed to provide an understanding about the various methods, tools and techniques of agile ways of working and their broad usage and the application of agile ways of working to a project environment.

Course Duration: One day

Who should attend:
APS1-6, EL1-2

Learning Outcomes

On completion of this course delegates are expected to be able to:

- » Explain some of the advantages of the Agile ways of working
- » Create a Kanban board and use it
- » Recall the roles, events and artifacts of the Scrum method
- » Start to identify whether work being requested is well enough described that work can commence, and when work can be called complete
- » Identify some of the ways in which agile roles interact with project management roles.

Topics Covered

- » What makes projects and BAU different
 - » What's a project, what's BAU change management?
- » What is "agile" and how do we apply it to projects
 - » Agile Manifesto
 - » Agile Basics
 - » Info Radiators
- » Scrum
 - » What is Scrum?
 - » Who are the team?
 - » What are the events?
 - » What are the artefacts?
- » Kanban
 - » What is Kanban?
 - » What are the benefits of Kanban (7 Muda)?
 - » What are the principles of Kanban?
- » Retrospective
 - » What can you take away and use?
- » Course Review and Closure
 - » Course Summary
 - » Final Questions
 - » Your feedback and evaluation sheets.

Access and Equity

Tanner James strives to provide the optimum access and equity for candidates to its training services. To this end, it is important that clients notify Tanner James as early as possible when a participant may need to take advantage of these provisions.

...Simple, practical programme and project management maturity