PRINCE2® is a project management method that is easily tailored and scaleable for the management of all types of projects within your organisation.

PRINCE2 is the de facto Project Management method within Australia and is widely used across government and commercial sectors. Over 150 countries and 20,000 organisations worldwide are using PRINCE2®.
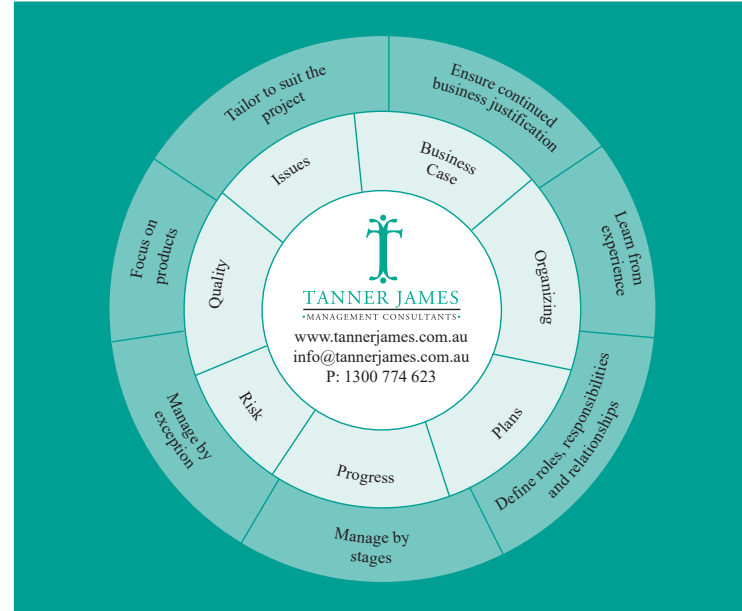

This half-day briefing provides a detailed look at the benefits and structure of PRINCE2® from a senior management perspective. A solid framework for reporting/information gathering and subsequent decision-making will be provided, based on the underlying principle of management by exception.

The briefing is designed to equip you with enough knowledge of PRINCE2® to enable you to participate in providing overall direction to a project following the method, either as a project board member or as project assurance.

Briefing Objectives

On completion of this briefing you are expected to be able to:

- Understand the project as a vehicle for managing business change
- Understand the PRINCE2® processes and practices
- Understand the reporting and decision making framework within PRINCE2®
- Effectively direct a project using PRINCE2®
- Identify the pitfalls to avoid when implementing PRINCE2® within your organisation

Delegate Participation

You will be involved in discussions that will allow you to consider the application of PRINCE2® within your work environment and serve to reinforce lecture sessions. All briefings are run by appropriately qualified project management professionals, experienced at working at the senior management level.

Briefing Prerequisites

There are no specific prerequisites for this briefing. However, if you have a clear idea of the outcomes and benefits to be delivered from projects that you are involved in, you are likely to gain more value from the discussions and be better placed to apply PRINCE2® pragmatically within your organisation.

Who Should Attend?

This briefing is designed for executives and managers involved in the overall direction of project work, especially those who will participate on a PRINCE2® Project Board or as Project Assurance. This includes personnel who will fulfill the PRINCE2® Project Manager role, as they will directly interact with the Project Board.

The briefing is also suited to senior managers who are likely to have a future involvement in projects and require a good introduction to the concepts of project management.

Access and Equity

Tanner James strives to provide the optimum access and equity for candidates to its training services. To this end, it is important that clients notify Tanner James as early as possible when a participant may need to take advantage of these provisions.
